A cloudy day in Athens... Our team are working in Velos Youth Centre today, providing healthcare to the young people - many of whom live on the streets and are subject to exploitation - who come to the centre for support in times of need. #kitrinoshealthcare #teamkitrinos #velos #greece #athens #velosyouthcentre #refugee #refugees #charity #medicalcharity #volunteers #healthcare #wellbeing #homelessyouth #exploitation

Since early 2016, there has been a surge in the number of refugees arriving on Greek islands. Over 200 people (20% of which are children) are registered every day. Kitrinos is responding to the ever-increasing need for charitable organisations to be present by expanding our services to other camps, and we have recently started working in Veria camp, around 70km from Thessaloniki. We look forward to updating you on any further developments! #refugees #Veria #VeriaCamp #fixingbrokenlives #TeamKitrinos #KitrinosHealthcare #Greece #refugeecamp #medicalaid

Thanks to an excellent response to our volunteer recruitment, we now have enough medical volunteers over December and the first half of January! We are so grateful for the hard work of all our volunteers - we couldn't do any of this without you.

However, we will be short on volunteers during the end of January onwards - if you are interested in a medical or non-medical volunteering position with Kitrinos Healthcare, where you would be playing a vital role in the provision of healthcare to refugees in Greece, please email volunteer@kitrinoshealthcare.com #greece #Thankfulthursday #fixingbrokenlives #volunteering #volunteers

! VOLUNTEERS NEEDED !

The team at Kitrinos Healthcare are on our way to Leros in response to the ever increasing need for medical care for vulnerable refugees in Greece. We are in urgent need of volunteer doctors and nurses during the month of December 2017. If you are interested in volunteering with us, please read the letter attached and email us at volunteer@kitrinoshealthcare.com. Please share this post to spread the word, and pass this on to anyone who may be interested. Thank you.

Aid groups are once again struggling to accommodate a rising number of people arriving on the Greek islands to request asylum. Despite heightened patrols in the Aegean Sea to deter smuggling activity between Turkey and Greece, hundreds of refugees are arriving on the islands every week (about 3,700 refugees reached Greek shores in August and about 400 new arrivals have been recorded per week so far every month since).

"Many new arrivals are coming from Syria and from cities that were previously under siege," said Louise Roland-Gosselin, an advocacy manager for Doctors Without Borders (MSF) in Greece. "It's difficult for us to know for sure where they are from ... but this is what people are telling us as they arrive." Though the current crossings are not comparable to the 10,000-people-per-day rates seen at the height of the EU refugee crisis back in 2015, recorded arrivals have been high enough in recent weeks to cause concern among aid groups and the Greek authorities. They report hazardous overcrowding in reception centers on the Greek islands of Lesbos, Chios, Samos and Leros. Such overcrowding creates unhygienic conditions in the camps and increases tensions amongst refugees, putting vulnerable families and individuals at risk. Increased incidences of self-harm and sexual assault have also been recorded as a result of overcrowding and prolonged stays on the islands, according to Boris Cheshirkov, a spokesperson for the UNHCR in Greece.

"In total, about 10,000 people are currently staying on Greek island centres," says Cheshirkov. Upon arrival, those seeking international protection begin the process of applying for asylum in the reception centers. When individuals are deemed eligible to continue the asylum process, they are often transferred to camps or apartments on mainland Greece to reduce occupancy in island hotspot centers. However, last month, the rate of transfers to the mainland was outpaced by new arrivals, leading to Please support the following cause - a dear friend and colleague is directly involved to ensure the burials take place quickly...as those who were with me in Lesvos two years ago will remember... they start decomposing very quickly when they have been submerged underwater....

Bodies including children waiting to be buried in Greece - we have agreement that this will be done tomorrow (Monday 13th Nov) provided sufficient funds are raised ... please give... no amount too small 🙏

Unfortunately, with so many people living in close quarters, stress levels are high in refugee camps, and occasionally tensions can reach boiling point. A fight amongst some refugees led to one man being stabbed, but thankfully our excellent team of volunteers were on hand to diffuse the situation. The man was immediately treated for minor injuries and (pictured below) volunteers helped to clean the blood from the ground.

This is precisely why we work so hard. Every life is precious and the death of anyone is heartbreaking, let alone the death of a child. Without a radical change to the conditions in refugee camps, innocent people will continue to suffer. We will not be satisfied until every refugee has access to adequate medical care so tragedies like this no longer happen.

this year, we at Kitrinos Healthcare have a unique opportunity to give Qurbani to those in need at the refugee camps in Greece. The meat will provide these families with dietary benefits and connect them to people around the world who are thinking of them during the Eid al Hajj celebration.

So show you care, give your share!

The Prophet (ﷺ) said:

'Whoever offers a sacrifice after the prayer, has completed his rituals (of Eid) and followed the way of the Muslims.' – [Sahih al Bukhari]

You can read more about our work and the appeal online:

When I arrived in Greece I was put into the Indomeni camp. The living conditions were really bad. We were waiting for the border to open. This didn't happen so I was moved to another camp. While in my tent I did some soul searching and decided to make something of my life. I began to learn English. I would take any chance to practice, books and conversation with anyone and everyone, I improved quickly. I then became a volunteer, translating Arabic to English. I registered with a relocation program. After 14 months of uncertainty I have been accepted to Switzerland. I now work as a medical translator for an organisation which works with refugees. I know my mum is really proud of me. I just wanted to say we are refugees because of war. We did not come to Europe for food or money. Today I am refugee maybe tomorrow you will be a refugee. We need to learn to love one another.

Many refugees travel across countries carrying all their belongings in plastic bin bags, and when we speak to the refugees in Greece, the one thing they ask for more than anything else is a suitcase. It is our aim to provide suitcases to refugees so they have a safe and reliable place to store and transport their belongings, but we cannot do this without your help. To donate to our Suitcase Campaign, or to any of our other current projects, please click the link below.

السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ

Dear Friends

On this auspicious night of possibly being "Laylatul Qadr", I wanted to first of all wish you all the blessings of Ramadan - concentrated into one night ..and to ask you to forgive me for words spoken harshly or actions that may have been hurtful. Whatever said and done we continue with the blessing of life, health and energy which must be used wisely to serve others.

It's easy to feel deflated after so many trials in the last week alone. Having worked so closely with refugees from war torn countries.... I faced a new challenge this week to meet refugees right here in London... our home- equally distraught and displaced by tragedy. A young mother of a 6 month old baby who was still recovering from a miscarriage a few days earlier.... recuperating- or so she thought- in her parental home in Grenfel. An older disabled woman who happened to be on the floor where a neighbours"s fridge "blew up" and may have started the disasterous inferno of Grenfel. They are grateful to have their lives.... unlike the many others whose bodies remain in ashes and few more fighting for their lives in comas...

I have always noted that no matter where in the world a displaced person comes from - it is striking how ordinary, how similar they are to our own families- grandparents, mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, sons and daughters....in each I see my own and pray that they remain unharmed..

With this tragedy on our doorstep, I felt obliged to distribute some of the zakat received directly into the hands of those I met.

Thanks to your pledges, we have already sent a few hundred brand new jilbab/ hijab for those trapped in Greece. We are now organising a hundred more to be distributed for Eid this weekend insha Allah amongst the fire survivors...it was touching to see that these loose light outfits were appreciated by all.

Another common theme that was arising - they are displaced and desolate but do have some dignity left and would prefer clean or new clothing. The hotels, sport centres, mosques and churches they are temporarily housed in have no laundry facilities and definitely no storage.

I would like to propose an ideal (and practical) eid gift in addition to new clothing would be a suitcase to carry their belongings as they face their onward journeys. In Greece - a medium size suitcase can be bought for £15 and a large one for £20... so if you like this idea then simply pledge these amounts ref "suitcase ".....

Let's keep our faith strong with the power of humanity coming together - each of us contributing in some small way..

This is a distressing read but it is exactly why small charities like ours will stay when all "the big names with EU funding" pull out...
Thank you for your support as without each and everyone of you we could not even attempt to make a small difference...
Tonight is a special night in Ramadan - let's make an intention to continue together to tackle this problem..

URGENT MEDICAL COVER NEEDED FOR THE NEXT THREE MONTHS!
Primary Healthcare Clinics,
Thessaloniki, GREECE

Dear colleagues and friends,

Most of the refugees trapped in Greece have either lost family through the atrocious war in their countries or been separated from them through the ongoing dire political boundaries. This means that nearly 60 000 people remain trapped in camps in Greece. Our team's medical services therefore continue to be needed for the foreseeable future, as we continue to provide care for several camps.

We are very grateful for the help already given and now need to request for help again. Even if you cannot help us yourself, please feel free to share this request with others who may be interested?

Who do we need?
Qualified doctors with a prescribing licence (minimum 2 years post qualification) are needed; ideally GPs, paediatricians, women's health specialists (including contraception advice) and A&E doctors who are prepared to help with primary care. We would also need experienced nurses with or without prescribing licences (although it is very helpful if you do have one).

السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ
Alhamdulillah we are blessed to have started yet another month of Ramadan...

I am currently in Greece in the refugee camps here and am feeling despondent.

I wrongly assumed that by now the second Ramadan for many refugees trapped here, there would be a system in place to take care of simple needs at this time of year- a few dates for Iftaar, a clean place to pray together and modest prayer clothes for the women. Sadly, I was wrong - and another year goes by where there seems to be even less for those trapped and forgotten in Greece....

It does not have to be this way because we have potential solutions for each of these scenarios:

1) we have sourced dates locally at a price of €2.50 per kg...
 2) a megaphone & clean sheets on the floor / beach replace prayer mats.
 3) the modest clothing has already been sewn- and now we just need to transport it to Greece and could be here as early as this weekend!

So my plea from those of you who made the niyyah (intention) to help is please fulfil your side of it by pledging any amount you can directly to our charity bank account :

KITRINOS HEALTHCARE LTD
 SORT 20-57-76
 ACC 13797201
 Ref : "Ramadan"
 And we can make this project complete together...

URGENT RECRUITMENT FOR CLINICAL MANAGER! Primary Healthcare Clinics, Thessaloniki, GREECE.
 We are urgently looking for a clinical manager from the 25th May 2017.
 If you are interested please read our recruitment letter and write us an email to show your interest.
<https://drive.google.com/open...>

Job Title: Kitrinos Healthcare Clinical manager and Clinical Coordinator

In this paid role you will be responsible for helping our ground team manage and run clinical services and coordinating the volunteers on the ground.

Background

Most of the refugees trapped in Greece have either lost family through the atrocious war in their countries or been separated from them through the ongoing dire political boundaries. This means that nearly 60 000 people remain trapped in camps in Greece. Our team's medical services therefore continue to be needed for the foreseeable future, as we continue to provide care for several camps.

Project Details

The Kitrinos "care-a-van" project provides mobile and static healthcare services to refugees in the Northern Greece area. The Kitrinos Healthcare team has been in Greece since October 2015. We have been approved by the Greek Ministry of Health and Migration to care for refugees in three camps in Eastern Region of Thessaloniki. The team has well-equipped ambulances and access to

This happened one year ago today but my colleague who responded was arrested as a result of his bravery and decision to help - he was just sharing it as a message to remind us all that when the time comes for us all to respond to disasters - you have to follow your heart and do what's right...

Sorry again for any alarm I may have caused.

However just last week 382 people arrived in Greece and the crisis is definitely continuing...

One year later Salam Al-Deen from Team Humanity shares his story:

Our previous camp, Camp Drama, is undergoing construction. Everyone from the camp has been relocated to a hotel up in the mountains. Team Kitrinos now provides healthcare services to 3 other camps: Camp Vagiochori, Sinatex Camp and Elpida. Below are some pictures of Sinatex Camp.

In East Aleppo, in an area smaller than a square mile, 100,000 civilians along with hundreds of doctors, nurses and humanitarian workers are trapped, 4km away from relative safety. Military forces have been moving to seize control of this area in what has been described as a 'complete meltdown of humanity'.

In times like these, it is easy to feel as though we have failed. To lose heart and think that what we are doing is not making a difference. This picture shows a recent ... Δείτε περισσότερα

To date, this is the youngest member of Team Kitrinos, aged two. Pictured here waiting for us to close up clinic for the evening. Our director, Siyana, is currently out there with her four year old. Whilst we are still looking for volunteers over the festive period, we understand you may well have other commitments.

Afterall, family is everything.

Nobody understands this more than the single parent travelling with several children, all under the age of five. This is the s... Δείτε περισσότερα
