Watch The Med Alarm Phone Investigations – 9th of December 2019

Case name: 2019_12_09-AEG634

Situation: Five people in distress close to Lesbos, rescued by Greek Coastguard

Status of WTM Investigation: Concluded

Place of Incident: Aegean Sea

Summary of the Case:

On 9 December 2019 at 00:33am CET the Alarm Phone got alerted to a boat in distress carrying 5 people close to the southern shore of Lesbos. The people reported that water was entering the boat and transferred their GPS location to us. From then on, we could not get through to the people anymore to find out more about their situation and at 01:02am we called the Greek Coastguard and passed the information. At 01:06am the Greek Coastguard informed us that they were already close to a boat which matched the description we had given them. At 02:14am the Greek Coastguard confirmed that the rescue was completed and at 07:52am, one of the travelers confirmed that they were save, as well.
